Vintage Posters of Ceylon

Fabulous illustrations full of exotic imagery unfold on page after page, taking you back some 150 years. Vintage Posters of Ceylon, authored by Anura Saparamadu and published by W. L. H. Skeen & Company, is rich in texture and colour. It both delights and surprises the senses. Anura started collecting vintage posters five years ago as a hobby. Over time, a fascination with them turned him into a serious collector. Heeding the advice of friends, he compiled the impressive collection in a beautifully presented book to be savoured by art lovers. A feast of abstract images, striking composition, and fine detail greets the eye as prints, renderings, and lithographs journey through a Ceylon long-forgotten, but forever loved.
